hello
autumn...

We are in Hampstead Heath
in North London.

We climb a tree.

FRIEND

It is the day after a Halloween party.

I still have
smudges of clown
face-paint

and it looks like the world
does too

yellow & orange leaves
pink sky

pale white fog

Like a clown.

The dark
comes early

comes early.

The fog is thick

making the

Street-lamps
hazy

On my walk home

I felt the ghost of Halloween lingering

Like fog

or smudged

face-paint.
